

Kevin Brennan

Kevin Brennan (www.comediankevinbrennan.com), is one of the top standup comedians in New York City. Brennan (although I'm writing this myself I'm using the 3rd person so that it won't seem like I'm bragging) was voted "Best Comedian" at the 2005 Aspen Comedy Festival which led to him taping his own HBO half-hour comedy special.

A former writer/performer on "Saturday Night Live," having worked there in 1999 & 2000, Kevin recently taped a pilot for NBC called "Number One Son" about growing up in a big Irish-Catholic family.

Brennan started his comedy career in Chicago but soon relocated to New York City to pursue his dream of being on the "Late Show with David Letterman." He nailed his first Letterman set which led to subsequent memorable appearances on "Late Night with Conan O'Brien" and "Last Call with Carson Daly," before both shows moved to Los Angeles. D'Oh!

Known for his no holds barred style, in 2006, Kevin released a CD entitled "I Said It" to rave reviews.

Kevin is one of ten children and became a stand-up comedian because he didn't get enough attention as a child. Come out and laugh at him.
